

WATERNISH PHONE BOOK 2023

Just a reminder that you will need to either return the form sent out recently, or give me a ring, if you wish to be included in this year's 'phone book. Many thanks to those who have already done so. I would appreciate your replies by the end of April, if possible.

As well as the A-Z Directory, there are many other useful local numbers – surgery, garages, shops, taxis, places to eat out, banks, ferries, local accommodation, emergency numbers, etc. There is also information regarding local services available on Waternish, e.g. window cleaner, gardener, electrician, etc. If you wish to know more about the book, please get in touch with me.

There is no charge for entry into the book, but a £5 charge per copy to buy. I will let you have details of where you can get the books as soon as they have been completed.

Many thanks,
Jaquie Jackson

WHEN IN DOUBT ASK A BUSY PERSON!

Waternish Community Hall Committee is looking for volunteers to join the Committee and hopefully to take on one of the following vacant roles: Minutes Secretary and Chairperson.

You can get a good idea of what we do by reading the minutes of our recent AGM - the Minutes of all Committee Meetings for the past 5 years or so can be found on the Document Archive page of our website.

The Hall is buzzing with activity - perhaps you already participate in one or more weekly events. As with all successful enterprises, there is a certain amount of organisation required to keep the wheels moving smoothly.

The current committee members are a friendly bunch. None of us had specific skills relating to running a charity when we signed on, but we have all learnt on the job and enjoy what we do.

If you might be interested in finding out more please contact one or other of us below, and we'd be pleased to have a chat with you.

Acting Chairperson: Judi Hodgkin 01470 592200
Secretary: Jill Lopez 01470 592771

There's lots more to read in our e-newsletter, but it mainly refers to online listings and events which is irrelevant if you do not have computer access, so we have not included all of the articles here. If you would like to read the latest news in full, you can go to the Latest News page at <http://waternishhall.com> – and sign up to receive our e-newsletter every Friday.

EMERGENCY ALERTS

A final reminder that there will be a nationwide test of the new UK-wide Emergency Alerts service on Sunday 23rd April 2023 at 3pm.

If you get an Emergency Alert on your phone, you'll hear a loud, siren-like sound. A message on your screen will tell you about the emergency and how best to respond. You'll be able to check an alert is genuine at gov.uk/alerts. To learn more about Emergency Alerts, look out for the nationwide information campaign and visit gov.uk/alerts. You can watch a video of how the alert will look and sound at: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MvZMoCRou8>.

FORTHCOMING HYBRID EVENTS AT SABHAL MÒR OSTAIG

Islands - past

FROM THE 'ISLANDS: PAST PRESENT AND FUTURE' SERIES

SATURDAY 29 APRIL | SABHAL MÒR OSTAIG | HYBRID

The Royal Society of Edinburgh, in collaboration with Sabhal Mòr Ostaig, has a varied programme of hybrid events coming up later this month, with something for anyone interested in Skye's history, and the history of Scotland's islands more generally.

As hybrid events, these may either be attended in person, or accessed through a live stream on the RSE's video channel. The videos will also be available to watch after the events have taken place, and anyone can access them. All events are free to attend, either in person or remotely, but you are advised to book your place by following the links below.

Friday 28th April 18.00 - 19.00: Scotland's Jurassic Park

This is a family-friendly event which explores the exciting discoveries of dinosaurs, pterodactyls, and other fossils from the Hebrides.

Saturday 29th April 09.30 - 17.00: Islands - Past

This is the first instalment of our 'Islands – past, present and future' series, and we are looking backwards to explore the exciting and complex history of the Scottish Islands.

For further details of these events, contact Sabhal Mòr Ostaig on 01471 888000
